New England Colonies map worksheet

Mayflower Compact Analysis

When the pilgrims were first sailing to Plymouth on their ship, the Mayflower, they decided to create a contract between them that would govern their actions in America. This contract would come to be known as the Mayflower Compact. An excerpt from this document is below. Read the text and answer the questions below.

...Having undertaken, for the glory of God, and advancement of the Christian faith, and honor of our King and Country, a voyage to plant the first colony in the northern parts of Virginia, do by these presents solemnly and mutually, in the presence of God, and one of another, covenant and combine ourselves together into a civil body politic, for our better ordering and preservation and furtherance of the ends aforesaid; and by virtue hereof to enact, constitute, and frame such just and equal laws, ordinances, acts, constitutions and offices, from time to time, as shall be thought most meet and convenient for the general good of the Colony, unto which we promise all due submission and obedience. - Mayflower Compact, 1620

Based on what you know about why the pilgrims left Britain, why do you think they chose these rules?

Based on the context clues in this text, what do you think a "civil body politic" might mean to you?

How do the pilgrims promise to treat each other in their new colony?
